Free Courses in Agriculture
For Students Over 16 Years

In an advertisement appearing in this paper last week, it was incorrectly announced that free courses in Agriculture and Home Economics would be given at the Old and Vermilion Schools of Agriculture to boys and girls under sixteen years of age. Obviously this should have read OVER sixteen years of age.

The Cranbrook Courier remarks: Canada may form a third party, for those who prefer a middle-of-the-road policy. All the truck drivers may be expected to join.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Smith, of Calgary, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter at the Holy Cross hospital on Saturday, October 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Hainstock, of Strathcona, were motor visitors to town last week end, and called on some old friends of the latter, formerly Miss Hazel Brown. Mrs. Hainstock had the good luck recently to win $16,500 on a sweep ticket.

Nineteen men from the Coleman relief camp, who obtained meals on October 7th from Calgary restaurants without paying for them, were each fined $5 and costs or 30 days in jail when they appeared before Magistrate Davidson. "We may be bothered with this sort of thing all winter if we don't take steps to stop it right now," the magistrate stated in pronouncing sentence. He stated that he did not believe the men had sufficient grounds for leaving the camp.

BENEFIT FOOTBALL

The Crows' Nest Pairs football season has finished, Kimberley winning the league cup, Hillcrest the Grand Central cup, Michel the Crahan cup and Fernie the Mutz cup.

One bad accident took place during the season, that of Michel's inside left, Pete Gaskell, who had the misfortune to break a leg while playing in the semi-final for the Crahan cup. Two games have been arranged between Michel and Hillcrest, all proceeds to go to benefit Pete Gaskell. To make these two games interesting, the league is putting up the Aldridge shield. The first game is to be played at Hillcrest Saturday, October 20th, and the return game at Michel on October 21st, total goals scored in both games to count.

IS IT A REMEDY?

In some respects Mr. Roosevelt is right in saying that his course toward recovery is not different from that of Great Britain. He followed Britain in deflating the currency and renouncing the gold standard, but in the practice of economy with a view to make ends meet he is going the very opposite course, but he advances a cogent argument for his action when he points out that unemployment is wasteful and demoralizing and that public money spent in curing this evil is not ill-spent. It remains to be seen, however, whether his treatment will effect a cure.—Vulcan Advocate.

DEDICATION OF ST. ANTHONY'S

St. Anthony's Catholic church at Beaver Mines was officially opened on Sunday, October 7th. His Excellency, P. J. Monahan, Bishop of Calgary, vested in his episcopal robes, presided at the Solemn Blessing, while a large throng of people surrounded the church. Holy Mass was then celebrated by the pastor, Father O'Dea, while a special choir from Pincher Creek sang hymns.

After Mass, His Excellency addressed the congregation, who had come from far and near and taxed the capacity of the church. He congratulated the local people for raising such a beautiful church to the honor and glory of God. He also complimented the non-Catholics who assisted the efforts of the pastor.

The thirty-eight candidates for confirmation were questioned on the truths of their religion. His Excellency made a strong appeal to the congregation to live up to the principles laid down by God Himself, stressing especially the strict observance of the Lord's day, the importance of true christian home training, and a return to the practice of the virtue of temperance. Those confirmed were asked to take the pledge of abstaining from intoxicating liquor until their twenty-first birthday.

The ceremony concluded with solemn benediction by His Excellency.

The following candidates were confirmed: John Bobin, Edward and Anthony Dercole; Alfred, Rosie, Mary, Asunta and Norma Chiesa; George Sillman; Joseph and Annie Mott; Joseph, John and Stephen Ondre; Naomi Chiesa; Eugene, Louis, Rosie and Patricia Biron; Alfred and Arthur Scotte; Roy and Lillian Garmache; Joseph, John and Irene Kapza; Leonard Corrigan; Patrick Fourand; Francis and Annie Bucar; Adolphe and Rosie Moytyla; Joseph Oskoski; Katie McCusky; Annie Kulcosky; Antoinette Biron; Hazel Maisseuve; Mary Hecar.

THE TENDERFOOT

By
GEORGE R. BODNEY
Author of "The Coronado Trail",
"The Canyon Trail", Etc.

SYNOPSIS

"You've fallen heir to a half-share in plenty of trouble," the lawyer told Gerald Keene. "The Broken Spur has been systematically looting the ranch, and old Joe Carr, your partner, is drinking himself into ruin."

But Keene decided to go see what was happening for himself—not as Gerald Keene, half owner of the Hour-Glass Ranch, but as Duro Stone, tenderfoot in a Montgomery Ward without a return.

Dad Kane, desert rat and luckless prospector till now, is returning to tell Dustin and Spike Goddard, owners of the Broken Spur ranch, who had grubstaked him, of his discovery of a rich gold mine, and shows samples of the ore. He sees Broken Spur men rustling Hour-glass cattle and protests against it.

(Now Go On With The Story)

This time Spike scoffed openly. It was no secret on any ranch in Seco Valley that Edith Carr, the red-headed, fiery-tempered daughter of the old owner of the Hour-glass, did exactly as she chose. So did her father. . . in most things for she dominated even the dour old man whom most men feared. Edith was not red-headed for nothing and Dustin had discovered it once in his sore-pressed. When he and Spike had first bought up the loose scrip that gave them title to the Broken Spur, he had vaguely noted the red-headed unformed schoolgirl who occasionally went to the infrequent Valley dances. Then, five years passed; she became the rage and he was suddenly aware that the unfarmed girl had developed almost overnight into the perfectly formed woman whom men openly coveted.

It was a full two years since Dustin saw her when his eyes were opened. She was coming out of the office in Seco and he, about to enter, stood as though paralyzed at sight of her. Her gray eyes stared at him uneasily and her bright head was upflung as she passed and a couple of "dry farmers" giggled. Dustin smiled. He did not know now would he have cared had he known that that very morning old Joe Carr had commented on his known conduct at a Mexican dance and on a household that he maintained in Sepulveda. Dustin raised his hat and stepped up to her.

"Aren't you going to say 'Good morning'?" he asked quietly. "To you? Why?" Edith stopped and looked at him as one might look at a mangy dog and that looked burned even Sam Dustin.

"I'd like to walk up the street with you," he suggested.

The loafers at the office-door did not hear his words but they saw him drop into step with her and they nudged each other. Then they saw her stop and draw herself up. There was no mistaking her words. They came with the whir and snap of a whip-lash.

"The street is open to the public, I believe," she said. "When I walk with any one it will not be with a 'squeam man'."

That was all. Dustin, the big man of the Broken Spur, dropped back. His face was white with wrath and his lips were set. The men who saw it all never said a word about it till they got safely home but after that, word spread. They watched him munch his horse from the stables and they preserved the silence of the damned till his horse was swallowed up in a dust-wreath. Then:

"She sure set fire to his shirt-tail," quoth old Styles. The others giggled uncomfortably. They knew Dustin fairly well.

Sam Dustin neither forgave nor forgot that incident and more than once he had planned revenge but no opportunity came his way. That one hot encounter marked Edith Carr as the only person in the Valley worth the time and patience to tame her and Dustin swore to himself that tamed she should some day be. Some day he would bring her to heel.

He had sense enough not to try to force his situations on her. He knew old Joe Carr too well for that for the old man was one of the old breed that held their women-folk sacrosanct. The man must be better than ordinary to get his legs under old Joe Carr's table where the pretty Edith held sway. That was also the beginning of trouble for the Hour-glass ranch.

It was a big ranch. For miles its fire flung up into the hills and its broad ranges pastured many cattle. But hard luck dogged old Joe Carr's narrow heels. First beef dropped to nine dollars! Then to six. . . Then a bucking pony slammed him against a bucking-post in the corral and broke his leg in two places.

But hard luck dogged old Joe Carr's narrow heels. First beef dropped to nine dollars! Then to six. . . Then a bucking pony slammed him against a bucking-post in the corral and broke his leg in two places. The break healed imperfectly. It had to be rebroken twice and the pain and the irritation over being a cripple when every man was urgently needed, availed the old fever that had never really subsided since Edith's mother was laid away in the little burying-ground under the great alamos. . . cotton-woods. . .

From day to day Edith tried gallantly to stop that solitary drinking. She saw her father go into his office at supper; she saw the door close and she knew, only too well what was taking place behind that closed door.

Twice she tried to force an entry but each time she was repelled and the door was locked. Sick and heart-sore, she knew what the trouble was, she fled to old Frank Crews, the foreman.

"Is there no way to make him stop?" she sobbed. "Oh, Frank! You know what it means to me. I feel good a man to go wrong at a time like this."

Crews nodded. "It's too good a man to let the straight of it go," he said. "I've busted his bottles till the back-coral looked like a bankrupt glass foundry, Miss Edith, but I'll be darned if I can make him see sense. The size of the matter is that he's just plumb worryin' himself into his bed and he's drinkin' to keep out of it. Darn him! He ought to know that with times like they are those two men Dustin and Goddard over at the Broken Spur are just set to wait at night's waitin' for a chance at him. If he ain't darned careful they'll get it too."

They did get their chance and they knew well how to take advantage when it came their way. They both knew what was taking place at the Hour-glass. A drinking boss means a careless bunk-house and any ranchman knows what that means. It spells disaster.

The result was not quick-moving. It came with the slow growth of an avalanche. That moves very slowly at first till sheer weight overcomes inertia. Then it comes suddenly dangerous. That first slow danger showed first in a slight lessening of the number of calves branded. . . Then a long line of fence broke down and one day discovered it till too late. Cattle strayed off the home ranges and if they calved at all, brought forth their young in hidden places where no one discovered them till too late. Then a few calves with alighted tongues. . . That told its own story to range-bred men. . . Calves whose tongues were all to keep them from sucking their daddies' teats.

Then followed a gradual drop in the grade of the stock. . . Any one could see it! And finally the open legal row over Soda Springs.

High Heaven alone knew why those ponds were called Soda Springs. There were three of them; great jets of clear cold water that sprang from the wall of the upper valley and formed a deep pool at the end of the canon. In that great pool water-cress grew rankly and cattle stood knee-deep in the water under the great trees. Soda Springs was a constant and never failing source of water supply even in the long Dry Season when no rains fell. To the sick and injured Joe Carr the news came like a thunderclap that Dustin and Goddard had brought suit over the validity of his own claim to the ownership of those springs. No one had ever thought to question his ownership before Dustin raised it and Dustin would never have thought of it but for a word from a drunken "Nester" from whom he and Spike bought the "scrip" that gave them a questionable title to the Broken Spur. No one had ever been refused water-rights there in time of need. The Springs might as well have been on the Open Range.

But the days of the Open Range were passed and along with them went the old-time spirit of freemasonry that made all men free of water and grass at need. It remained for the Broken Spur to force old Joe Carr to defend his title to those Springs by fencing them and barring them to the public. It made him none too popular. Where old Joe had once been the Nestor of the cattle men in Seco Valley, he was likely to become their Thersites, thanks to the magnesian of Dustin and Goddard. He knew the cause of it all. He knew that drink added to the spirit of aggravation already aroused by Dustin and Goddard was making him unpopular where he had once been a favorite, but he could not give way. Finally, dour, silent because he had none to talk to, bitter with hate and wrath at his own inability to keep abreast of the times, he saw his ranch slipping into the cattle depression. It did not improve his temper to note the success of the Broken Spur.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

FOR YOU, THE DAWN

For you the dawn with sunlight flooded,
The lark's notes falling from the sky,
The yellow roses newly budded
And winds as gentle as a sigh.

For you this fragrance, recurrent wonder,
This hour of promise and of peace,
This joy which breaks past buds and buds
With certain message of release.

For some the tranquil twilight hour,
For some high noon with gold and blue;
But yours this pearl and opal dower,
Always the dawn, the dawn for you!

O, never dawn comes gleaming, breaking
Through some night by land or sea,
But that I feel your spirit waking,
That you are incarnate dawn to me!

For the first 37 weeks of 1934, ending September 13, the number of hogs graded in Canada was 2,085,489. In the corresponding period of 1933, the number was 2,210,670.

St. Paul's Cathedral

Saving Edifice From Encroachments Of Modern Commercialism

Considerable progress has been made during recent weeks with a scheme for surrounding St. Paul's Cathedral with a "sacred area" within which no deep excavations would be allowed which might endanger the shallow foundations of the building.

Such a scheme was first proposed in 1912, but nothing much came of it. The cathedral authorities on behalf of the cathedral authorities, sent a letter to the Lord Mayor inviting the corporation to help in protecting the cathedral.

The matter was referred to a special committee of the corporation, and they have been helped by a report on the subsoil and foundations of the cathedral, drawn up after over two years' investigation, by Sir Alexander Gibb and Mr. Ralph Freeman. The report was accompanied by a model showing the underground condition of the city from Bouverie Street (a turning off Fleet Street) to the Bank of England.

The special committee have recently been drafting a Bill in which it is hoped parliament will establish the controlled area. Though the details of the bill are not yet available, it is expected that it will be submitted to the House of Commons in November and become law next spring.

The editor of the Journal of the Architects' Institute remarks that "the acceptance of this scheme, for which Canon Alexander has striven for many years, is of significance not only because of the specific protection afforded to St. Paul's Cathedral, but because it marks the establishment of the principle that a great work should be protected, if necessary by Act of Parliament, from the encroachment of modern commercialism."

Zeppelin For Exploration

Three Scientific Flights To Be Made

The exploration of jungles, desert and icy territories, which used to be life or death adventures, have been much simplified by aerial transport and radio. There are still great tracts of the earth's surface where, as the Irishman said, "the hand of man has never set foot," and these are likely to be narrowed within the next few years.

When flying north from South America, Colonel Lindbergh reported passing over virgin jungle where there was evidence of ruined cities. Brazil and the republics around it are particularly attractive fields for the modern explorer. Many men have lost their lives walking through these desolate and fearsome places, meeting death through getting lost or perhaps some alluring beasts.

Next year, a brand new zeppelin will make three scientific flights over the region of the mighty Amazon and its tributaries, which should clear up some mysteries about that impenetrable Amazon. This zeppelin will have a gyroscopic device that will enable it to hover over any spot and lower men and supplies in a gondola, so that they can make detailed research under observation from above.

The expedition will explore places which scientists believe to exist but have no accurate data upon, such as the Valley of Orchids, the lost city of Sincora and several other places, and will try to find tribes of Indians who are supposed to inhabit the jungles and have never been seen among civilized communities. — St. Thomas Times-Journal.

University of Minnesota Co-Ed Has Design Accepted For Bridge

A 21-year-old University of Minnesota co-ed, who will not receive her degree in the engineering school until next June, was disclosed as the designer of the plan accepted for the new $2,075,000 bridge to be constructed across the Missouri river at Omaha, Neb. She is Edith Reed, of Minneapolis, working her own way through the university, and who developed the plan while in bed recuperating from an automobile accident.

Little Helms For This Week

"Beloved thou doest faithfully whatever thou dost." 3 John 8. "And this also we wish, even your perfection." 2 Corinthians 13:9.

In all the little things of life, Thyself Lord may I see; In little and in great alike Reveal Thyself to me. So shall my unloved life To Thee my God be given; And all this earthly course below Be one dear path to heaven.

— H. Bonar.

In order to mould thee into entire conformity with His will He must have thee pliable in His hands, and this pliability is more quickly reached by yielding in the little things than even by the greater. Thy one great desire is to follow Him fully; cannot thou then say a continual "yes" to all His commands whether small or great, and trust Him to lead thee by the shortest road to fullest blessedness?

With meekness, humility, and diligence apply yourself to the duties of your condition. They are the seemingly little things which make no noise but give success.—Henry More.

A New Nome

To Rebuild Devastated City With Modern Structures

A "new Nome," with wider streets, a new business district and modern structures, will arise from the $3,000,000 fire disaster through plans completed by the Fera relief committee.

Their work shows a complete new plan for the business district with streets to be 90 feet wide and with front street to be moved back from the beach of the Bering sea about 50 feet further than its previous location.

WORKS FOR YOUNG

IF OLD ARE RETIRED

Many of the countries suffering under the so-called depression are trying to evolve schemes to provide employment for their young men, many of whom are walking the streets, because labor has no place for them.

There is a movement on foot in the United States at the present time which, if ever adopted by the government, will certainly relieve some distress in old age and provide work for the younger generation. The originator of the plan proposes to retire every worker at the age of sixty and provide him with a pension of two hundred dollars per month for the rest of his life. He avers that no one can live comfortably on less than two hundred per month. The monthly pension would be paid by the government, and the retirement of the older individuals would naturally let in a couple of million young fellows, according to official statistics of the U.S.

The proposer of the scheme has certain strings attached to the plan, which seem to be reasonable. In the first place, every recipient of the two hundred dollars must spend all of his income so that the money will be thrown into circulation and help keep industry moving. He must also sign a document, after reaching the age of sixty, that he will not execute another stroke of work during the rest of his life. The first "string," when it is taken into consideration that a pensioner has no further worries as to income and livelihood would be voted "O.K." by most people, but the latter proviso may have the tendency to make the old folks more or less inactive—and inactivity brings on death, especially when one has led a most active life. It would even be a hardship to an ambitious man—but what is meant by this proviso is that the older citizens refrain from taking any occupation that would prevent a young man from working. It would be up to the elderly ones, in sacrificing their positions to youth, to map out a daily regime of activity, other than industrial work, and so keep themselves occupied and in good healthy condition.

In order to get the plan started, the originator will appeal to the U.S. government, asking for two billion dollars to pay the first month's pensions to the aged—after that, he feels that this amount put into circulation would increase industry sufficiently to provide thousands of jobs—the number of men employed in the newly-created jobs, would in turn, start to spend money, which would then provide still more work. In short, the country would soon house a populace of prosperous, contented and industrious citizens.

The moral involved in the plan is boiled down to the only solution to solve business stagnation—circulation of money—and any workable plan which will start such circulation is the one that will bring the world out of the morass of unemployment.—Ex.

FLATHEAD RUMORS

The Nelson Daily News says:

"Has crude oil in commercial quantities been struck in the Flathead valley of British Columbia?"

There are rumors that it has.

A year ago last June the Columbia Oil company commenced drilling and it is said that recently at between 1800 and 2000 feet crude oil was struck, the well yielding at the rate of about 35 barrels a day. Two huge tanks, one of 600 gallons and one of 1000 gallons, were filled, it is said. Then the company closed in this reservoir with concrete and resumed drilling with the object of finding oil at the greater depth where geologists have predicted huge wells will be discovered in this area.

That is the story, and strong color is lent to it by the fact that the Columbia Oil company recently, by purchase of 9000 acres from the Daily interests, increased its holdings of acreage in the valley from 4000 to 13,000.

Desire to purchase more acreage is given as the reason for keeping secret the discovery.

There are also rumors, coming from authoritative sources, that the provincial government intends to build next summer the 22 miles of oil necessary to connect the Flathead oil fields with Corbin, B.C.

Until this road is built, concerns operating in the Flathead have to take in all their supplies from Montana, which means that British Columbia is facing the business—and that the operators have to pay an average of about 37 1/2 per cent duty and excise on their supplies.—Fernie Free Press.

NO MORE TOOTING IN TOOTING

Traffic authorities in London have issued a new rule, providing that no automobile horns may be sounded anywhere in the city at night. The period of silence will last, approximately, from 11 p.m. to 6 or 7 in the morning; during that time the sleep of Londoners will be protected, and roving traffic policemen will crack down on any driver who touches his klaxon button.

Any one who has lost sleep—and who hasn't?—because some dolt of a motorist is unable to proceed two blocks without sounding his horn lustily, will approve of this regulation. The average motorist uses his horn far too much.

Indeed, traffic might be a good deal safer if drivers generally made a practice of using their brakes instead of their horns when they saw some person or vehicle in the right of way ahead of them.—Ex.

Timothy Riordon, father of Mrs. J. H. Peel, of Blairmore, died at Vancouver last week. Mrs. Peel left for the coast Saturday to attend the funeral. Mr. Riordon worked as roadmaster of the Calgary division of the C.P.R. for quite a number of years and was very well known.

A delightful concert was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid in the auditorium of the United church on Tuesday evening, attended by an audience of over two hundred. The programme consisted of a play, vocal and instrumental solos, etc., and was intensely interesting.

In a day the average farmer walks 26 miles, a letter carrier 22, policemen 14, boys 15, girls 11, housewives 8 and train conductors 7, it has been estimated. No effort has been made to figure out the number of miles covered daily by the milk boy, but a friend of ours claims it to be about thirty a day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brusset and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Morgan, who had been on a bird hunting expedition around central Alberta, spent a couple of days in Calgary before returning. While in the city, Mrs. D. G. Mackenzie, a former Blairmore resident and honorary vice-president of our musical festival, entertained at luncheon at the Calgary Golf and Country Club in honor of the visiting ladies from The Pass.

ITALY NEEDS BABIES

Dictator Benito Mussolini has long had the idea that Italy must increase its population. He wants soldiers and workers and consumers. And he has launched a fresh scheme for the accomplishment of his purpose. Henceforth, every single man who tries to get work with the government will have to prove his intention to get married, and private industry will be requested to set up similar requirements. The premier has already ousted numbers of mayors and other officials because they were confirmed bachelors. Thousands of girls who do not support families will be cleared out of the factories. This will make room for unemployed men, and the men will not be given work until they promise to get married. Thus every male taken from the ranks of Italy's unemployed becomes forthwith a potential husband and father. The Fascist textile organization ordered that thirty per cent of all workers in the weaving branch of the industry should be men, "to meet the demand of male employment." Women now form an estimated ninety per cent of the total number of textile employees. The export institute ordered all women clerks out and hired young men as clerks and stenographers.—Ex.

THE CHURCH AND REVOLUTION

In the light of the truth just summarized, three statements may be made concerning the attitude of the church—the attitude that should be and the attitude that is:

1. The church should expect revolution. Does it? Does it not, rather, impress the world that it exists to hold things as they are and to use religion as a kind of social sedative and anodyne? Indeed, is not the church surprised when signs of revolution appear, and does it not dread and seek to avoid all social upheaval? Remember the contrast of Jesus: "It hath been said of old: but I say." It means, expect revolution.

2. The church should discountenance and discourage violent methods. Does it? But recently several ministers of prominence were known to refer sneeringly to "pacifists" and the church seems not to believe that military measures are not in accord with the teaching of Jesus. There is a better way.—His way.

3. The church should propagate revolutionary ideas. Does it do so? On the contrary does it not seek to suppress them and refuse to give them serious consideration. Then is the church blocking the coming of the Kingdom. The question calls for heart-searching. Perhaps it calls for more—even for revolution within the church that the church may become truly and fully the follower of Jesus, revolutionist. It was the church of His day which blocked His Kingdom programme. Is the church of today ready to follow where he leads?—The Presbyterian Advance, Nashville, Tenn.

The annual rally of the senior Sunday school was observed by a special service in the United church on Sunday evening, which was largely attended. During the service a pageant was staged by the young girls, under the direction of Miss Lillian Knapman, entitled "Sunday School Visitors from Far Places." Two violin solos were rendered by George Kerr.

There is a "silver conscience" in Montreal. For this the Sleeping and Dining Car Department of the Canadian National Railways says a hearty "thank you." Six after dinner coffee spoons and two soup spoons returned to the fold a few days ago after an absence of undetermined duration. They arrived by mail in a package bearing a Montreal postmark and their receipt is duly acknowledged to the unknown who returned the silverware.

"So you're setting your lay up in the bakery business?"

"Yes, he's so keen for dough and is such a swell loaf, it looks as if he would rise in the business."

ASSISTANCE TO EXHIBITORS

Assistance usually granted by the provincial department of agriculture to seed grain exhibitors at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, and the Chicago International, will be forthcoming this winter, according to announcement made by department officials. In connection with exhibits of seed grain at the Royal Winter Fair, which is held during the latter part of November, the province will pay the entry fees and freight shipping costs to Toronto on approved exhibits in classes for registered or certified seed, and on exhibits in the junior club classes. The return shipping costs will not be paid. The entry fees must first be paid by the shipper, and will be refunded. On seed grain exhibits to Chicago, the transportation costs will be paid by the province both ways. To winners of one or more first prizes, or championships, an honorarium of $50 will be paid by the province, which will be increased to $100 in the case of wheat, oats or barley. The provision with respect to payment of transportation costs has to do only with freight shipments. Where exhibits have to be expressed, only half the cost will be paid. The usual assistance will also be given on live stock exhibits to the Royal Fair at Toronto, and the exhibits this year are expected to be fully up to the standard of former years.

HERE'S A HOT ONE

We clipped this from a recent issue of Collier's Weekly:

"The British Islands, parts of France and other portions of Europe are habitable in the winter time only because of the direct and indirect influence of the Gulf Stream. If it were not for the Gulf Stream they would be as cold as a lizard's heart. And where do they get it from? They get it from America, that's where they get it from; and they don't pay a cent for it. The Gulf Stream is an undeveloped national asset. A series of piers and breakwaters could be arranged so, as to deflect the Gulf Stream on this side of the Atlantic, and control its course across the ocean... send it here, there or 't'other place, as we choose. If we get a bit peevish with some European country, we could turn off the Gulf Stream in winter, as a landlord turns off the heat from a tenant."

A Scotchman paid a visit to a friend in London, but stayed longer than was expected. At length, the friend dropped a gentle hint. "Don't you think," he said, "that your wife and children would like to see you again?"

"Thanks, verra much," was the answer. "It is most awful kind of you. I'll send for them."

LUNDBRECK FARMER PROFITS FROM LEGHORN CHICKS

Exceptional results were attained by R. E. Marlow, foothills farmer of the Lundbreck district, from a number of White Leghorn chicks this season. Mr. Marlow purchased in the spring of 1933 from the Winter Egg Poultry Farm in Calgary about 700 chicks. In the fall he had 255 well selected pullets.

From these 255 pullets Mr. Marlow realized the substantial sum of $700 in 11 months of egg production. Crops were badly hit in the Lundbreck district and the $700 was a real life-saver, he says.

Mr. Marlow candled and graded all the eggs himself, and as a result maintained a good price for the eggs. The 1000 chicks Mr. Marlow had this spring started to lay at 4 1/2 months of age, and 125 of these pullets in one pen are producing five to six dozen eggs per day, an excellent yield for September.

There are women who are comely. There are women who are homely. (But be careful how the latter thing you say!)

There are women who are healthy. There are women who are wealthy. There are women who will always have their way.

There are women who are truthful. There are women who are youthful. (Was there ever any women who was old?)

There are women who are sainted. There are women who are painted. There are women who are worth their weight in gold.

There are women who are large and fat and red; There are women who are slender. There are women who are tender. There are women who have tarried. There are women who have married. There are women who are speechless—but—they're dead!

FARM CREDIT ACT IS TO BE APPLIED SOON

Ottawa.—Within 10 days, the government will proclaim the Farm Credit Act passed last season, enabling debilitated farmers to arrange compromises with the creditors and start over again financially, it was announced. It probably will apply first to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, where the need is most, being extended later to all provinces.

M. A. MacPherson, former attorney-general for Saskatchewan, has been in Ottawa two or three weeks, drafting regulations under the act and starting it in motion. He will not be a permanent official.

In a statement, the former Saskatchewan official said the purpose of the act was to provide legal machinery of the simplest type, enabling financially-distressed farmers to secure relief from their over-power debts. At the same time, it provided safeguards for the creditors.

In passing the legislation, said Mr. MacPherson, parliament "felt that if the debtor and creditor can be brought together easily and the actual facts and circumstances obtained by reasonable and frank consideration then, that there should and would be an understanding arrived at."

The legislation makes available to both sides the opportunity that there may be fair investigation of the true situation.

This should mean a fresh start for the debtor—a start which will mean that while he will still have obligations, these obligations will be so rearranged that he can face the future with confidence and be no longer in default. Each party must be prepared to deal reasonably with the other. A settlement is needed between debtor and creditor and it must be made without destroying the basis of credit and confidence, and, as well, without undermining the basis of co-operation between them.

If, under the act, the parties at their meeting cannot agree, then there is provision for appeal to a tribunal which can formulate a binding proposal, basing it upon the "present and prospective capability of the debtor to perform the obligations prescribed and the productive value of the farm" (section 12).

No Change This Year

Government House in Ontario Not To Be Closed

Toronto.—Decision as to the maintenance of an official residence for the lieutenant-governor of Ontario will be reached when the legislature meets, Premier Mitchell Hepburn has stated. Asked if he was going to close up government house, Mr. Hepburn said the funds for this year had been voted and no change would be made.

"A resolution will be introduced in the house next session, either by the government or a member dealing with the matter," he said. "It will be left to a vote of the representatives of the people and I don't think there is much doubt of the result." Mr. Hepburn said he had no desire to harass or annoy the lieutenant-governor but had to give effect to the will of the people to curtail expenses. The governor was appointed by the federal government and consequently the province had nothing to say as to his $10,000 salary but a decision had to be reached as to whether the province should continue to maintain a residence. In his opinion it should not.

Strengthen Gold Reserve

Flow Of Hoarded Gold To London From India Now $750,000,000

New York.—The flow of hoarded gold from India to London, which began with Britain's suspension of the gold standard not quite three years ago, has now exceeded the sum of $750,000,000.

This movement of metal from the hide-aways of the east is a major factor in strengthening the financial basis for economic recovery, in the opinion of many commentators. Much of the gold has gone into the vaults of central banks where it provides the foundation for credit and currency.

Tree Museum

Seattle.—Work has been started on what officials say will be the "biggest tree museum in the United States." The Washington Emergency Relief administration made $500,000 available for the giant Lake Washington arboretum.

Marketing Plan

Plan To Be Put In Operation, Beginning With Apples

Toronto.—The Globe in a special despatch from its Ottawa correspondent says the Dominion government's experiment in control and regulation of marketing of natural products will be inaugurated this week. The first products to be dealt with under the scheme will be apples and pears, the Globe says.

The first step in launching the scheme will be the designation of a minister to take charge and it is expected Hon. Robert Weir, minister of agriculture, will start the task at once. The cabinet will then pass approval on Mr. Weir's selections for the federal marketing board after which the act will be promulgated.

The Globe added:

"Mr. Weir, it is understood, will take personal and active charge of the operations of the federal board, whose primary function will be to deal with the various schemes submitted by producers throughout the Dominion. The federal organization is expected to include in its various departments such officials as D. Horace Barton, deputy minister; Dr. J. F. Booth, formerly director of markets for Saskatchewan; and an authority in the department of the wheat situation; R. L. Wheeler, acting fruit commissioner in the absence of G. E. McIntosh, who is ill; J. F. Singleton, dairy commissioner, and R. Rothwell, livestock commissioner."

Churchill Busy Port

Takes On Business Aspect At The Opening Of Navigation

Churchill, Man.—Rising from the rock-rimmed Hudson Bay shore, the mammoth elevator and docks of Canada's most northern seaport have taken on a business aspect as preparations went ahead for opening of navigation within the next few days.

Three steamers are inbound bound, the S.S. Dalworth of the Dalgleish lines, the S.S. Brandon, and the S.S. Rio Clara. No longer a mere outpost of civilization, but a vital point in the commerce of a nation, Churchill girded itself for the busiest shipping season since the northern water route was opened in 1933.

Ten ships have been chartered to handle Churchill's share of that golden tide of grain which flows each fall from Canada's western prairies. The 2,500,000 bushel elevator is filled to capacity and in addition to grain cargoes, cattle, flour, oatmeal and other commodities will be shipped from the northern port this year.

The S.S. Brandon last year made two trips to Churchill to take the first cattle shipments of 20 head over the northern route. The Brandon will again depart with a livestock cargo and it is believed this boat and the S.S. Greahed will both make two trips into Hudson Bay this year.

Studying Crop Loan Plan

Would Give U.S. Farmers Control Of 1935 Supplies

Washington.—A gigantic crop loan plan which would leave control of 1935 supplies in the hands of farmers who grow them is hatching in the United States farm administration.

Modelled after this year's corn and cotton loans, the plan will call for government loans on a wide range of other crops. There will be a stipulation that supplies must be sold when prices rise to a certain point.

Last year the government advanced farmers 10 cents a pound on stored cotton, and 45 cents a bushel on corn sealed in cribs or warehouses. This pegged prices at those levels and officials say the plan was a success.

As prices advanced beyond those levels recently, farmers began selling crops, paying off loans and making a profit for themselves.

Start Dionne Home

Callander, Ont.—Excavation work has started for the new home of the 71-day-old Dionne quintuplets. The modern brick building will be known as "the Dionne hospital for the Dionne quintuplets," in honor of the middle-aged north country practitioner who has amazed the world with the favorable progress his direction has brought the infants.

Gold In Manchukuo

Tokyo.—Geologists and mining experts believe Manchukuo has rich deposits of gold, hidden in its extensive Khingan and other mountain ranges and river valleys, only awaiting exploration by modern methods. To yield returns that would make the new east Asian empire one of the wealthiest countries in the world.

Profit On Wheat

Presumably Belongs To The Three Western Pools

Ottawa.—Statisticians at work when wheat recently touched a dollar a bushel for the May delivery at Winnipeg, estimated a book profit of $20,000,000 on the government incursion into wheat price stabilization.

The profit, if finally realized according to John I. McFarland, manager of the selling agency, presumably belongs to the pools of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and not to the Dominion, which guaranteed the manoeuvre to the banks.

The profit does not affect the return to the farmer and is predicted upon this year's reduction in yield in Western Canada and the crop failure in western Manitoba and southern Saskatchewan.

PROJECT TO BUILD UP STRONG AIR FORCE IN BRITAIN

London.—Goniometric radio stations for noting positions of aeroplanes and indicating their exact position if necessary will be set up around the coast of the United Kingdom, the air ministry has announced.

The project is part of the new drive to build up the Royal Air Force to protect Britain in case of invasion.

Such stations are slated for the Isle of Wight, Ireland, Scotland and the north of England.

"A confidential mission of the highest importance connected with the defence of the Empire" is being undertaken by Sir Maurice Hankey, secretary of the imperial defence committee and of the cabinet, according to the Daily Herald.

It was announced Sir Maurice is leaving for Australia to attend the Victoria centenary celebrations and on the way will spend some time in Cape Town, South Africa, Lady Hankey's former home.

Describing the centenary celebration as the ostensible purpose of the visit the Herald says the utmost secrecy is being observed with regard to the real object. It says that in addition to South Africa and Australia Sir Maurice will visit New Zealand and Canada, to discuss with experts on the spot vital matters of military, naval and aerial strategy. The paper further suggests these questions are connected with "defence problems arising out of the new turn of British policy resulting from the reciprocal visits of General Maxime Weygand (chief of the French general staff) and Lord Halifax (British minister of war) also the naval requirements of the Empire in view of the outlook for the 1935 naval conference which the Herald describes as "gloomier than ever."

Sir Maurice's intention to visit Canada and New Zealand is also mentioned by the Daily Mail and the Daily Express. The Mail says he will take advantage of his trip to make a tour visiting the various Empire governments on behalf of the cabinet and add it is understood that questions of imperial policy, particularly with regard to defence, will likely be discussed.

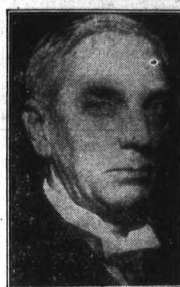

It was stated some time ago that Sir Maurice would advise Australia on defence matters during his visit.

THEY WAITED—BUT HE NEVER CAME

DEPOSED "PRESIDENT"

According to Germany's constitution, Dr. Erwin Bumpe, President of the German Supreme Court, should have succeeded the late President Paul von Hindenburg. His term of President would last only until a successor could be elected, but Hitler elected himself before Bumpe had a chance at the post.

Reformed Calendar

Windsor Man Proposes System With Five Weeks In Each Month

Windsor, Ont.—A 12-month year with five weeks in each month and six days in each week is the simplified calendar which Alexander J. Gilmore, of Detroit, has before the world to-day. He would eliminate Saturday.

His plan would make a working year of 360 days, during which time the calendar would be unchanged from month to month, Sundays would always come on the seventh, 13th, 19th and 25th each month. There would be no Friday, 13th.

To take up the remaining five days, Mr. Gilmore would have them follow Christmas, being a series of festival days. They would end with New Year's day.

To Reduce Relief Burden

Dominion To Put 1,200 Men To Work On Jasper Highway

Calgary.—The Calgary Herald published the following:

"For the purpose of reducing the relief burden of Calgary and Edmonton, the Dominion government plans to take 1,200 married unemployed men who are receiving relief and put them to work on the Lake Louise-Jasper highway at a wage rate of 40 to 45 cents an hour."

"Six hundred men will be recruited from Calgary and 600 from Edmonton," it was said.

Grant Wage Increase

Montreal.—An agreement giving wage increases of 10 per cent, to those paid by the week and 20 per cent, to piece workers virtually brought to an end a strike that tied up the women's clothing industry in Montreal for more than a week. Some 2,000 workers, members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, will return to their benches.

Old Shell Kills Boys

Köln, Poland.—Five little boys were torn to pieces by the explosion of a world war shell they attempted to take apart. Two other lads were badly injured. The boys were tending sheep at the time.

Pension For Dolfus' Widow

Will Receive Sum Equal To Chancellor's Salary

Vienna.—The semi-official Wiener Zeitung published a decree by which Austria accorded the widow of Dolfus a pension, for herself and her children.

The widow will receive during the term of her widowhood a yearly amount equal to the late chancellor's salary. In addition she will receive a special sum for each of her children. In the event of her re-marrriage the children will continue to receive special pensions until they come of age.

May Stop Wheat Exports

U.S. Needs Pacific Northwest Supply For Domestic Use

Washington.—The farm administration plans to stop exporting wheat from the Pacific northwest because of the rapidly diminishing supply in the United States.

To date 28,000,000 bushels have been sold abroad by the North Pacific Emergency Export Association. Their operations soon will be stopped and remaining and prospective stocks shunted into domestic channels.

NEW MEASURES TAKEN AGAINST AUSTRIAN NAZIS

Vienna.—Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg announced the government's agreement with Vice-Chancellor Franz von Papen of Germany's special envoy to Vienna, at the same time taking powerful new measures to end Nazi propaganda in Austria.

A government communique announcing Von Papen's acceptance revealed at the same time the granting of sweeping powers to Major Emil Fey, minister of the interior. In his capacity of special commissioner for security measures, Fey is charged with snuffing out Nazi influence.

The long-delayed acceptance of Von Papen by the new Austrian government as Chancellor Hitler's special appointee came during a cabinet meeting.

The new envoy faces a difficult task in improving relations which have been strained since Hitler came to power and embittered after July 27 by what the Austrian government openly considered to be proof of a putative partially planned in Germany.

Although it was understood no conditions were attached to the acceptance, it was generally believed here the length of his residence as special envoy will depend more upon the future policies of the German government than upon anything Von Papen can do in Austria.

Under the new decree, Major Fey can order dismissal of private employees held to be guilty of spreading Nazi propaganda against the government. "Patriotic" persons will be given jobs thus vacated. The new government thus has gone a step further than the Dolfus regime ever ventured in efforts to wipe out Nazi influence.

The relentless campaign of the Austrian government against the Nazis claimed another life of a soldier—this time the life of a soldier in the regular army.

Ernst Feike, a soldier, was hanged in the courtyard here for participating in the putsch in which Chancellor Dolfus was slain.

He was the first member of the government armed forces to be tried and executed on charges of high treason in connection with the Nazi outbreak.

Another death sentence was imposed to-day in Klagenfurt, but the prisoner, Karl Kosterling, also a Nazi, received a commutation to 15 years' imprisonment from President Miklas.

Feike in his court martial trial brought in the name of Emil Fey, former vice-chancellor and still a cabinet member, who was imprisoned in the federal chancellery when Dolfus was killed.

Feike testified that the Nazis who seized the government building desired to establish a "ministry of national concentration" with Anton Rintelen, then minister to Rome, at the head and with Fey as a member.

The defence in the trial sought a hearing by the new chancellor, Kurt Schuschnigg, as to whether safe conduct to Germany had been promised to the putschists. This the court rejected.

As the death sentence was imposed, the soldier raised his arm in a Nazi salute and shouted "Heil Hitler."

He was pulled back to his bench by a guard.

TWO AVIATORS MAKE CANADA TO ENGLAND FLIGHT

London.—The first successful Canada-to-England flight was written into Trans-Atlantic crossing records, but two gallant aviators failed in their attempt to set a long distance record.

When James R. Ayling and Leonard Reid set down their "Fruit of the Caribou" at Heston aerodrome they had covered approximately 3,700 miles from Wasaga Beach, Ont., their take-off point. Their goal was Bagdad, Irak, 6,500 miles from the Georgian Bay shore.

Many flights over the Atlantic from Newfoundland have been successful, but the few attempts from Canada—none within comparatively recent years—have failed.

Ayling and Reid left Wasaga Beach at 6:12 a.m. E.D.T. They landed at Heston at 1:07 E.D.T., an elapsed time of 30 hours and 55 minutes.

A rapidly diminishing supply of gas forced them to change their plans and land in England, the flyers said.

"It was a wonderful trip," said Reid, "but we surely are disappointed we couldn't continue on to Bagdad."

"We had bad weather most of the way across the Atlantic. The controls jammed several times. So when the gasoline supply seemed to be dropping—we thought it best to land."

"Anyway, we're glad we landed safely," Reid added.

The flyers said they had been running into increasingly unfavorable weather. They landed in a private flying field at Heston in Middlesex, shortly after flying over London.

When the black-winged biplane came to the ground in a perfect landing, the few members in the Heston clubhouse rushed out in surprise. They were amazed when they learned who the flyers were.

"We are glad to be here," said Reid, "and we were very gratified upon the two men. 'What shall we do about customs regulations?'"

Their calmness brought a gasp of surprise. "It was all done as nonchalantly as if they had come from just around the corner," said one official at the aerodrome.

Customs requirements met, the flyers took off for Hatfield, home port of the ship when it was "Seafarer II," piloted by Jimmy Mollison and his wife, Amy Johnson.

Leaves To Claim Fortune

Former Alberta Man Will Use It To Establish Innocence

Toronto.—John F. Gallagher, convicted in 1922 of the murder of John G. Coward in Alberta, sentenced to be hanged and later acquitted, has left for England to claim $500,000 which an aunt promised him if he settles down and marries before Dec. 25, 1933.

Gallagher, who has been living in Toronto during the last three months, has assumed a new name and is convicted of arson when his home in Alberta was destroyed by fire. Sentenced to life imprisonment, he appealed and sentence was judged excessive. It was reduced to 10 years and he served a term in full.

Gallagher plans to use a portion of the fortune he will receive in England in an effort to establish his innocence of the arson charge and bring to justice the murderers of Coward and L. Fuller, friends and neighbors in Carbon, Alberta, both of whom were killed within a year.

Resignation Announced

General Manager Of Canadian Airways Going To U.S.

Winnipeg.—Resignation of Wilfred C. Sigerson, general manager and controller of Canadian Airways, Limited, was announced here by James A. Richardson, president.

It is understood Mr. Sigerson will leave here shortly to take an executive position with an aviation company in the United States. Mr. Sigerson was elected controller of Canadian Airways, Limited, when the company was formed through amalgamations.

Liner Beats Own Time

Cherbourg, France.—The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain, claimed a new record for the Quebec-Cherbourg Atlantic crossing. Her time for the crossing was four days, six hours and 58 minutes, 34 minutes under her own previous record, set in August, 1933.

AID FARMERS TO SECURE MONEY TO CARRY ON

Ottawa.—Details of the amendments to the Canadian Farm Loan Act passed at the last session of parliament, in conjunction with the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act, have been published by Finance Minister E. N. Rhodes and distributed among those concerned. Under these amendments the board will be empowered to take second mortgages in satisfactory cases to enable the farmer to secure money to carry on his operations.

The explanatory statement says, in part: "While the Canadian Farm Loan Act has made provision for adequate rural mortgage loan facilities under normal conditions, under existing conditions the amount of the average mortgage loan available on the normal margin of security and on the basis of present-day values of farm lands has not proved sufficient to re-finance the overdue and pressing obligations of farmers incurred at higher price levels or incurred in the period of readjustment following the first severe drop in price levels and farm income."

The amendments to the Farm Loan Act have been consequently designed to make available to individual farmers larger mortgage loans on a consequently smaller than normal margin of security.

This has been done by empowering the board to make to farmers applying for loan not only an advance by way of loan restricted to a maximum of 50 per cent. of the appraised value of his lands plus 20 per cent. of the value of the buildings thereon on the security of a first mortgage thereon, but also a further and additional advance, if so required by the applicant, on the security of a second mortgage on the said real estate and on the security of a mortgage on his livestock and chattels up to a maximum of one-half of the amount of the first mortgage advance. But the aggregate of the amounts advanced should not exceed two-thirds of the appraised value of the farm lands and the buildings thereon accepted as security for such loans, nor in any event more than $7,500.

The additional advances, which may be for convenience termed "second mortgage loans," are repayable on terms not exceeding a period of six years and carry interest at a rate not more than one per cent. in excess of the current rate of interest charged on first mortgage loans.

Mining Town Growing

Jellicoe, Ontario, In Midst Of Real Estate Boom
Jellicoe, Ont., a real estate boom has struck this taxless mining town as prospectors, geologists, miners and others rush to grab land and erect shanties against fast-approaching winter that fear will crack down on the scene of Canada's newest gold scramble.

All along the Canadian National Railways' right-of-way from the station to what was until recently Jellicoe's only pretence at a hotel, hammers and saws resound as the town grows like a mushroom. Mining companies are constructing living and storage quarters at the mining country base, trying to finish them before the impending freeze-up.

Lots have been rented by the railway along the right-of-way and beside the rusty sidings. Houses, shanties and new stores are being built. A new hotel-bunkhouse has been finished and all available sleeping space around its walls is rented, much of it permanently.

The problem of sleeping accommodation has been solved to some extent by arrival on one siding of a tourist sleeping car in which the railway company rents bunks at nightly rates of $1.50 for a lower and $1 for an upper.

Society Woman Abducted

Wife Of Wealthy Kentucky Oil Man Is Kidnapped

Louisville, Ky.—Mrs. Betty V. Stoll, young society leader and wife of a wealthy oil man, was seized from her fashionable home by a kidnapper who left a note containing a demand for $50,000 ransom.

Beaten by the abductor, who gained entrance into the house on a pretext and left her maid bound and gagged, Mrs. Stoll was spirited away in an automobile.

Federal, city and county authorities immediately began a wide search.

Mr. Stoll discovered the kidnapping when he returned home from the office late in the afternoon. There he found the maid bound and gagged.

The maid said the abductor got into the house on the pretext of wanting to use the telephone. The maid was quoted as saying she "never saw a more fiendish-looking man."

As soon as he entered the house the man drew a pistol from his pocket and forced the maid to help him bind Mrs. Stoll's hands with tape. He was unusually rough, the maid said, and this was evidenced by traces of blood found on the floor.

The abductor was described as being between 30 and 35 years old, about five feet eight inches tall, weighing about 130 pounds, having black hair parted in the centre.

Mr. Stoll later issued a statement addressed to the kidnapper and asked that it be published:

"Betty Stoll has just found the note regarding the ransom and arrangements are being made accordingly."

He declined to make contents of the ransom note public, but it was learned that in addition to demanding money it contained a threat that William A. Stoll, president of the Stoll Refining Company, was "next on the list." He is a brother of Betty Stoll, the vice-president, and is president of the Louisville Board of Trade. Stoll said the ransom note was found in an upstairs bedroom.

People Living Longer

So Insurance Companies May Raise Annuity Rates

Chicago.—People are learning to live so long that annuity insurance companies are likely to be higher in the future.

Arthur B. Wood, president of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, indicated that in an address before the American Life Convention he warned that "if annuity premium rates are based on the assumption that recent past experiences will be repeated, they will probably prove insufficient."

He suggested that "to avoid increasing an ultimate loss, additional provision should be made for anticipated increase in longevity."

Follower Of Gandhi

Madeline Slade, Former Society Girl, Reaches New York On Mission

New York.—Madeline Slade, former English society girl, who nine years ago became "Mirabai," chief woman lieutenant of M. K. Gandhi, has arrived to "give Americans a clear conception of Gandhi."

She travelled third class on the Majestic, and said she regretted having been unable to use even more humble accommodations.

"Mirabai," daughter of a former admiral and old magistrate before she renounced social life to follow Gandhi, was dressed in homespun clothing, a man's coat, and cheap Indian sandals. Miss Slade said she came on the invitation of the Rev. John Haynes Holmes, chairman of the American League for India's Freedom, for a lecture series.

Outlaws Capture Missionaries

Chinese Take Three Church Workers Prisoners In Southern Province

Peiping, China.—A dispatch to the British legation from Chungking, said three foreign missionaries, including Miss Grace Emblem, a British subject, had been captured by outlaws. They were taken prisoners at Lo-huangpo, 60 miles east of Kweiyang, Kweichow province (southern China), the dispatch stated.

Advices from Shanghai said Miss Emblem is attached to the China Inland Mission. The other captives are an Englishman and a Swiss.

Elevator And Wheat Burned

Buchanan, Sask.—Fire destroyed the Inter-Ocean Elevator and about 20,000 bushels of wheat. Volunteers carried out the office records. George Ternovskiy, the agent, was absent when the fire broke out.

Interest Rates Reduced

Savings Account Interest To Cut To Two Per Cent.

Ottawa.—Interest paid on savings deposits will be reduced to two per cent. as from Nov. 1, 1934, by all chartered banks in Canada, the Dominion government post office savings banks and the Ontario government savings office, Finance Minister E. N. Rhodes announced.

A similar reduction will be made effective by all other banks on Dec. 1, and the minister intimated that a number of the important loan and trust companies in Ontario will reduce by one half of one per cent. the rate of interest which they at present pay on savings deposits, such reductions to be effective from Jan. 2.

On May 1, 1933, savings deposit interest rate was reduced by the chartered banks and similar institutions from three per cent. to two and one-half.

SOME CONTROL OF INDUSTRY MAY BE INSTITUTED

Ottawa.—Suffering more widespread than that caused by the Great War had been brought about by uncontrolled business, Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress, stated in an address here.

"We are going to have industrial control in Canada whether we like it or not," he declared. "Industry has shown conclusively that it can not conduct itself."

"For the good of business itself, for the good of the people, in order that sweat shops which the Stevens investigation has shown to be so prevalent may be abolished, some control will have to be instituted. But we must go carefully or we might establish a dictatorship."

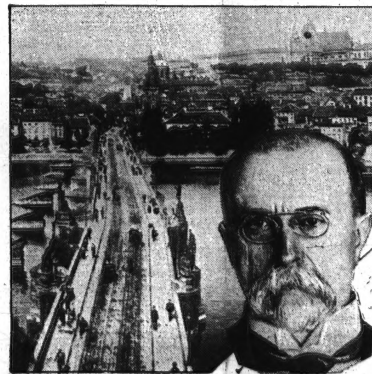

"Legislation should be brought in to effect only after collective agreements between those concerned—employer, employee and consumer. It must be uniform throughout the Dominion. After that, the people should boycott all those who will not live up to the regulations and drive out those who will not play the game fairly. We must see that business is for public benefit and not for private profit."

Bringing of the British North American Act up to date, unemployment insurance, and industry-control were three ways in which Canada could combat "rebellious feeling," which, he believed, was far more extensive than generally realized.

In considering unemployment insurance, Mr. Moore suggested certain provisions which he thought necessary for social legislation for Canada, such as insurance be contributory, as many as possible be insured, but not to include those who for physical or such other reasons were unemployed and who would be looked after by other means; benefits to be in cash; qualifications to be governed by the number of contributions made.

Although it had been said when unemployment insurance was first proposed that it would impoverish the country, stated Mr. Moore, since 1930 Canada had spent $500,000,000 in direct relief and was now spending $60,000,000 per month.

CZECHS FEAR FOR AILING LEADER

Dr. Thomas Garrigue Masaryk, the founder and only president of the Czechoslovakian republic, is said to be slowly ailing, and political observers believe he will not be able to serve much of his third successive term, to which he was elected several months ago. Now 84 years old, President Masaryk has watched his "brain child" grow to manhood, with a powerful voice among European nations and serve as the last outpost of democracy in dictatorship-ridden central Europe. He resides most of the time in his dacha in the capital, Prague. Our pictures show the veteran leader, and a view of Prague.

Rise In Wheat Prices

Average Export Value Shows Sharp Increase

Ottawa.—The sharp rise in the export value of wheat in August, when it reached $12,888,000, was more than maintained in September, the Dominion bureau of statistics reported. The quantity exported in September was 17,588,299 bushels and the value $15,323,000, about $300,000 more than a year ago.

The average export price in September was 87.1 cents as against 75.9 cents last year. During the first six months of the current fiscal year the export value was $68,337,000 compared with $60,279,000 last year, a gain of about $8,000,000, the bureau states.

Refunding Loan

Believed That Original Amount Has Been Over Subscribed

Ottawa.—With the 1934 refunding loan an unqualified success no definite figures of recent applications were issued but it was learned the only reason the books were being left open was to enable further conversions of 1919 Victory bonds. The government was assured the original objective of $250,000,000 would be more than reached but it was desirous of securing as many conversions as possible even if it were necessary to scale down some of the larger subscriptions to keep the total issue within the figure set.

Chinese Charged With Possession Of Opium

Two In Saskatoon Alleged To Have $5,000 Worth

Saskatoon.—War against narcotic peddlers, recently waged successfully in Montreal with the breaking of an important international drug ring, opened in Saskatoon with the arrest of two Chinese merchants of Saskatoon in alleged possession of $5,000 worth of opium. With the arrests police believed they had secured the leaders of an important drug ring in the prairies. It was believed the largest seizure in the history of the province.

The arrests were made under the direction of Detective Sergeant L. J. Black, of Edmonton, in charge of the narcotic division of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in Alberta. Sergeant Black recently returned from Montreal where he participated in the breaking of the $1,000,000 ring led by Pincus Brorch, wealthy New Yorker, who committed suicide after his conviction.

Those arrested were D. Lem, alias Dai Kwok Luen, and Fred Hwa, who also is believed to have business connections in rural points.

May Return To Britain

Report Says Earl Of Egmont Will Take Seat In House Of Lords

London.—Preparations are being made at Avon Castle, Hampshire, for the early return of the Earl of Egmont, his wife and their infant son, according to the Daily Mail. The earl, who is only 20 years of age, is living at present on his Alberta ranch near Calgary.

The Mail says it is the intention of the earl to return to Avon Castle before he reaches his majority next April and to take his seat in the house of lords.

FEAR THE PEACE OF EUROPE MAY BE DISTURBED

Paris.—Fear the double assassination of the King Alexander of Yugoslavia and Foreign Minister Louis Barthou of France might wreck the continent's peace as did the killing of Archduke Franz Ferdinand at Sarajevo 10 years ago, lessened at time passed without bringing any major developments.

But the 20 deadly bullets fired by Petrus Kalemien at Marseilles left Europe nervous over what may come next. In many quarters belief that Kalemien may have altered the course of events in Europe was freely expressed.

The question of the assassin's nationality, highly important because of its political implications, preoccupied police over the continent, and everywhere authorities sought clues which might enable them definitely to identify him.

France's Surete National and authorities at Praha, Czechoslovakia, insisted the Czech passport found on Kalemien's body, which apparently had been visited by Yugoslavian authorities at Zagreb, was forged.

Among documents seized in the homes of Yugo-Slav Separatists in Paris, police said, was one calling Alexander "tyrant king and traitor of this country."

Meanwhile, trouble for the government of Premier Doumergue appeared to be brewing over responsibility for failure to protect King Alexander, as groups of demonstrators on the boulevards shouted insults at police and Albert Sarraut, minister of the interior, for failure to prevent the assassination.

Interpellations already have been filed in the chamber of deputies and certain French newspapers have criticized the government sharply, while opponents have suggested it is time to overthrow the government of "tragically weakened authority."

Premier Doumergue himself took over the duties of Foreign Minister Barthou.

Throughout Europe police are searching for information about a group of international terrorists believed to have plotted the assassination of King Alexander.

Meeting secretly in some remote Balkan hideaway, police believe, the band of assassins drew lots to determine who would give his life to slay the king of Yugo-Slavia.

The task falling to Petrus Kalemien, the gang is believed to have planned the assassination in the full detail and equipped the slayer before sending him over the French frontier from Vallorbe, Switzerland.

UNITED STATES WILL EXPORT NO WHEAT THIS YEAR

Washington.—United States farm administration officials said no plans were being made for exporting wheat from the United States this year in view of the short crop of 496,000,000 bushels forecast.

The only surplus wheat available will be the soft white variety grown in the Pacific northwest. Plans are now being made for selling approximately 15,000,000 bushels of this surplus to the federal surplus relief corporation for relief.

Officials declared that the total supply of wheat in United States at the close of the present harvest would be 786,000,000 bushels, 290,000,000 bushels of which would be a carry-over from last season.

About 625,000,000 bushels will be required for normal domestic consumption and a carry-over into the 1935-36 crop year of 125,000,000 bushels is estimated. These deductions would leave only about 36,000,000 surplus and officials estimated this figure probably would be reduced by increased feeding to livestock because of short supplies of other feeds.

Industry Code

Move Made To Control Unfair Trade Practices In Manitoba

Winnipeg.—Establishment of a government establishment of trade and industry to prohibit unfair trade practices is the intention of the Manitoba trade and industry by means of code and license was proposed here by the Manitoba Retail Merchants' Association.

The suggested department would fix minimum wages, fix a minimum price for sale of goods and services and supervise working conditions.

The proposals will be submitted to the provincial government and were contained in suggested draft legislation to be presented to the legislature. Discussions are continuing and the present draft will be subject to rigorous revision, said H. B. Scott, secretary of the association.

In its present form, the proposed legislation would apply to wholesale and retail dealers of all kinds, bakers, printers, restaurant keepers, dry cleaners, barbers and many other industries.

The proposed legislation would give power to the minister of trade and industry to license all persons carrying on trade in Manitoba. Codes would be established to regulate each industry, and, if approved by 66 per cent. of the licensed persons engaged in the trade, would be declared in force by the lieutenant-governor.

Declares War On Racketeers

Ontario Government Will Protect People Against Impoverish Fin

Toronto.—Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn declared his Ontario government would "wage war without quarter through its securities commission on financial racketeers and all persons engaging in improper financial practices."

The premier made the statement following a meeting of the cabinet.

"To this end new regulations were passed to strengthen the arm of Securities Commissioner Godfrey and to place his commission on a self-supporting basis," the premier said in a long statement.
